GRAND KNIGHT'S REPORT

Robert Renshaw, Grand Knight...410-592-8406
 Baltobob@comcast.net

Dear Brothers,

Well, this article is my last hurrah as Grand Knight. As I look at the past two years, the people I need to thank are too numerous to enumerate here. Everyone who chaired a program, helped in the kitchen, served and cleaned up, took a turn with raffle tickets and tootsie rolls or just supported our programs by their attendance has helped make the council the success that it is.

Two years ago at the Grand Knights training seminar, the State Deputy said that we had to have a theme. I found that concept to be somewhat intimidating and for a while joked that my theme would be "The Council that eats well." I think that we did accomplish that, but as I re-read my articles over the past two years, there is one more serious theme that crops up almost every month. That theme is: If each of us does a little, we can accomplish a lot. I truly believe this and view it as the fraternity and unity that makes the council so strong. I always appreciate the fine efforts of the men who are always there to implement and support our activities and I don't ever want to take them for granted. But I particularly rejoice when I see new faces helping out or older faces who find their way back for an activity or two. I can only hope that the remaining members who we don't see are proud to be Knights and that we have benefitted them in some way.

I would be remiss if I didn't recall the dear Brothers we have lost over the past two years. Four were past grand knights and the most recent is our former Associate Chaplain, Father Jack. They all helped build the council that we have today and will be sorely missed.

Lastly, I hope that some small thing I may have done will encourage others to step up and accept a position of greater responsibility. No one person is expected to do everything, but if you are willing to become a part of the leadership team, this council has many more great years ahead.

Vivat Jesus

CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

Dear Brothers,

THE QUESTION many receive or ask themselves or others is this: "How do I find Jesus in a way that brings me to Him more frequently?" As radio and TV station announcers have said repeatedly since the beginning of the Memorial weekend, "It's time to kick off the summer vacations time." The long days of those "lazy, hazy days of summer" are a perfect time for many to answer "the question." Ruth Haley Barton produced a insightful and practical book, Invitation to Solitude and Silence, that is an excellent response to "the question."

I will offer a few of Barton's helpful insights into life for men and women in a busy world. In essence she reminds us that goals worthy something cannot be achieved in the snap of two fingers. Time, precious time is needed. And this is the gift of summer time. Longer days, brighter evenings. Sitting in the yard or on the porch ... the opportunity to be quiet and alone. She writes that taking time for silence, just sitting still, giving the brain and heart a rest, is an invitation to the very core of our being. It is there that we meet the Jesus who "waits just outside the noise and busyness of our lives."

It is worth having a copy of one part of the Old Testament, I Kings 19:1-19, the story of Elijah and his struggle to hear Yahweh in his own prayer.

Beginning such a journey, like any personal journey of self-discovery, is to know where you happen to be at any moment. Then, if you can honestly see in your heart and mind where you are, then you have to want to progress, to move onward to what you might simply call somewhere else. A question most men might confront is this: What is it that causes me to want to live with a frenetic lifestyle? It is this crazy activity, yes, sometimes necessary, that can lead a man to ask this question: "Is life really meant to be like this?"

If we are honest with ourselves, we might have found ourselves in a situation described by Ruth Barton as the statement of a dear friend: "Ruth, you are like a jar of river water all shaken up. What you need is to set still long enough that the sediment can settle and the water can be clear."

During these summer months we should find time to let the 'river water' of our daily lives settle long enough to produce clear water. Just ten minutes a day, sitting in silence, not trying to figure out a problem, not calling upon God for an answer to the challenges of life, but just ten minutes letting your mind and heart go nowhere. It might require several of these private, quiet sessions with yourself for you to not feel the difficulty of silence. Practiced regularly, these ten minutes can become the key that creates a new spiritual you because, after a short time with this effort, God will speak to you, the Holy Spirit will lead you where God knows you are the best as he created you.

This is but Part I of a June, July, August, September series to help you (and me) develop or strengthen our love of silence because it is there where we find God and God finds us!

Vivat Jesus!

SUPREME COUNCIL NEWSwww.kofc.orgIn Service to One, in Service to All*Knights of Columbus Supports Military Pilgrimage to Lourdes

For the third consecutive year, Supreme Knight Carl Anderson joined nearly 200 military veterans, active service personnel and volunteers sponsored through the Archdiocese for the Military Services and Knights of Columbus during the 57th International Military Pilgrimage to Lourdes, France, May 15-18.

Prior to the start of the international ceremonies, the American pilgrims were welcomed at a Mass celebrated on Thursday, May 14, at the shrine's Rosary Basilica. In his homily, Bishop F. Richard Spencer, auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of Military Services and the episcopal vicar for Europe and Asia, shared the significance of the pilgrimage site which has been "a place of pilgrimage for over a hundred years."

He asked the pilgrims, many of whom were wounded after serving in combat and military duty, to continue to "heed our Blessed Mother's call to conversion of heart so that the world might be a better place for all." Supreme Knight Carl Anderson expressed similar sentiments in an address to this year's pilgrims, as he encouraged the pilgrims to "prayerfully seek God through the intercession of Our Blessed Mother, the celebration of the sacraments and fellowship with military personnel from countries throughout the world.

"Our commitment to veterans and active-duty military personnel has never wavered," Supreme Knight Anderson continued. "We not only provide spiritual support and catechesis to members of our Armed Services, but we also offer scholarship programs for seminarians who will serve as military chaplains. Beginning in 2014, the Knights of Columbus partnered with the Gary Sinise Foundation to help provide custom-built homes for severely wounded veterans. In addition, countless individual Knights volunteer their time to Veterans Affairs Voluntary Services programs throughout the country."

Archbishop Timothy P. Broglio of the Archdiocese for the Military Services was the homilist and main celebrant for Friday's Mass welcoming the international pilgrims. The archbishop was accompanied by several military chaplains, including eight Catholic priests, to further meet the spiritual needs of the pilgrims.

Following the opening Mass, the American pilgrims and volunteer joined veterans from other countries at various ceremonies, prayer services, military band concerts and processions. Among the Knights of Columbus volunteers were Supreme Master Dennis Stoddard and Assistant to the Supreme Knight for Military and Veterans Affairs Col. Chuck Gallina.

The pilgrimage is the latest chapter in the Order's long history of providing hospitality and spiritual resources for military members. During the First World War, the Knights of Columbus Army Hut program assisted members of the military throughout Europe. Immediately following the end of the war, the Order organized the first-ever international military pilgrimage to the Marian shrine at Lourdes.

Since then, the Knights have helped sponsor war relief activities and programs for veterans.

STATE DEPUTY'S MESSAGE

Steve Adamczyk, State Deputy

Be Not Afraid, Our Faith is Our Courage

State Council Website: www.kofc-md.org

Dear Brothers,

Well it's coming to the end of a Great Fraternal Year, and I want to thank all the Grand Knights and Council Members who made it a banner year for the Maryland State Council. You have made it enjoyable for me and all the State Family and the SUCCESSES we have achieved are from your hard work and attention to detail. The "FACT" that we hold the distinction of 100% in the submittal of our Fraternal Surveys, is something to be proud of. Each council should take pride in their achievements of the past year. Congratulate the membership and your Council Family on my behalf.

My directors and chairman will remain the same, with few exceptions, and are anxious to meet the incoming class of Grand Knights at the June Leadership Seminar in Frederick, Maryland. We have sharpened our presentations, renewed our invigoration and motivational skills, replaced a number of the jokes that failed over the year, and are ready to present new and improved ideas, and concepts to fulfill our promises of furthering the principles of Father McGivney and the Knights of Columbus. Please encourage the incoming Grand Knights to attend, be open minded, and receptive to new perceptions of promoting the Order. It is our "Moral Obligation to offer membership in the Order to all eligible Catholic males over the age of eighteen years of age", as our Supreme Knight, Carl Anderson has stated on many occasions.

To the Grand Knights wives, who have been so supportive of their husband's works and the works of the Order, I thank you all. It has been a pleasure to get to know you over the past year, and a privilege to witness your dedication to your husbands and the Order. May God Bless You, and Keep you Always.

There is still a great deal of work for us to accomplish, for our Church, our Councils, and our Order. Never lose sight of our Solidarity with Our Priests and Religious, and our commitment to leave this world in a better shape than we found it, through one council at a time. I pray for you all and ask the same from you to guide our State Family to God's Greater Glory.

Fraternally and Gratefully;

Steve

Be Not Afraid, Our Faith is Our Courage

My dear Brother Knights,

I bring you greetings from our State Deputy Stephen J. Adamczyk.

I want to congratulate the new Officers of Long Green Valley Council and let them know that my District Warden Mike Georgulas, myself and our Regional Advisor Mike Sallese are here to help them in all their efforts on behalf of the Knights of Columbus.

I hope that planning has started for the new fraternal year since July 1 is coming quickly.

Congratulations for the new 8 men that joined the Knights and Long Green Valley on May 26. Your Star Council Award is still in your reach!!!!

God Bless and Vivat Jesus,

Lee Eder, PGK, PFN

CHURCH ACTIVITIES

Pat Donohue 410-941-5025 donohuepj@comcast.net

St. Johns Spring Fling was May 7 through 9. Once again the Council, under the leadership of Warden Tom Rowan, manned the beer garden. The sales set a new record thanks to the three days of good weather. Tom estimates that they generated about $3500 for the parish. The only problem was that there was not as many volunteers as in past years and many of the volunteers worked with very little break. In addition to Tom's hard work from dawn to dusk and then some, Brother Ted Daniecki was behind the till all day every day. Tom would also like to thank John Reed, Pat Donohue, Jim Schmidt, Sr., Jim Schmidt, Jr., Bob McGraw, and Tom Rowan, Jr who pitched in throughout the Spring Fling. We also appreciate the efforts of Brothers Lt. Bob McGraw, Jim Hock and Ed Pfister who worked security throughout the night.

May had five Sundays. On May 31 we again gathered as a group on the left side of the church for the 9 AM mass and had a breakfast in the Hall to follow. We can follow up next month with a report of how well it went and to whom we owe thanks.

Sunday, June 7 is the parish picnic. The parish will provide the food and we will provide our grill and the manpower. Come join us after the 11:30 mass and pitch in if you can. Otherwise, just enjoy socializing with your fellow parishioners. Our faith is not intended to be practiced in solitude; we are a community of believers. Come join in with others in our faith community at 12:30 on the 7th.

COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

Ted Daniecki 410-692-4399 daniecki@zoominternet.net

The Spring Blood Drive will be Saturday, June 6 from 6:30 to 12:30 in the Church Hall. Chairman Mike Bathon needs help calling donors, setting up, manning the registration table and canteen. His goal is again 100 or more units, so we need everyone who is physically able to donate. There will be parish sign ups after all masses the weekend of May 30 and 31. Wear your name badge and be available to help Mike after whatever mass you normally attend.

COUNCIL ACTIVITIES

Paul Weber 410-879-0558 apaulweber@verizon.net

Long Green Valley Day at Ironbirds Stadium is scheduled for Friday, July 3rd. Join your brother knights, families and friends for a MVP pre-game food package, fun and fireworks. Gates open at 5:35 pm for a 7:05 pm start time. Food service starts at 6:35 pm.

Come watch some great baseball and an outstanding fireworks display immediately following the game. We have reserved seating on the Party Deck for 60 people. Please help fill the deck for a spectacular 4th of July celebration. The party deck includes your admission, game program, parking, buffet and a souvenir Ironbirds hat.

The buffet includes smoked pork BBQ, roasted herb chicken, hot dogs, toss green salad, baked beans, cole slaw, cookies and fountain drinks. The food is "all you can eat" for 90 minutes. Seating is limited to 60 people. Tickets will be available on a first come, first served basis. Don't delay – send your check for $35 a person (payable to KC #8736) to Tom Rowan, 2010 Carrs Mill Rd., Fallston, MD 21047 or contact Tom at 410-365-6575. Children age 3 and under are free.

You can also purchase your tickets at the council meetings this month. Don't be left out – only 60 tickets are available. Deadline to purchase tickets is June 7th. Be sure to contact Tom Rowan TODAY..

Lunch Bunch

The Lunch Bunch meeting in May was not as well attended as I would have liked, but we were pleased to see two old friends back for the first time this year and a new face who was very welcome, indeed. Apparently, there was a plethora of doctor appointments that day. That's a risk we run considering our average age these days.

Everyone enjoyed hamburgers, potato salad and cookies. For June, I'm thinking about getting a sandwich ring and maybe the same potato salad. If anyone has a specific request or suggestion, let me know.

If you haven't been able to attend evening meetings for a while, come join us on the third Tuesday of the month at 11:30. Reservations aren't necessary, but it would be great if you could call or email me at 410-592-8406 or baltobob@comcast.net so that I will know if I am preparing for 8 or 20.

The next meeting will be on June 16 at 11:30 in the Hall.

CULTURE OF LIFE ACTIVITIES

Ben Jenkins 410-592-2493 jbjenkins1@verizon.net

Brothers,

Taken from Martin Fox's May 24, 2015 e-letter:

Pro-lifers were shocked to hear news out of Colorado that a pregnant woman had been attacked and had her unborn baby Aurora cut out of her.

Tragically, the baby did not survive, yet Colorado prosecutors are refusing to bring up murder charges against the killer.

Why you ask?

You see, baby Aurora was still eight weeks away from birth.

Colorado state law prevented charging the attacker for murder because the law stated that little Aurora was not yet “a person.”

And since the law doesn't give little Aurora the protection of “personhood,” this killer will get off scot-free.

Colorado legislators crafted a modest bill to protect unborn babies from similar attacks in the future.

Yet the so-called “National Abortion Rights Action League” (NARAL) couldn't stomach even the slightest restrictions on protecting unborn life.

NARAL Colorado put out a statement taking a firm stance against such “harsh penalties” on anyone who ends a pregnancy “against mothers wishes.”

You read that right.

It's not enough to the abortion lobby that mothers can choose to kill their unborn children at any time and for any reason, but killers who wish to kill an unsuspecting mother's unborn baby should be protected too.

The abortion lobby's radical support for abortion-on-demand knows no bounds.

For Life,

Martin Fox, President
National Pro-Life Alliance

Brothers,

Welcome to our 8 new Brother Knights and thank you to their sponsors. We are close to making Star Council because of your efforts. Don't take the summer off.

On May 26, we found that we could handle 10 candidates. It was tight but it worked.

We have room for another 8 so please keep your referrals coming.

Please phone 410-790-7484 or email craytrek@comcast.net with any potential candidates and I will PURSUE!

FRATERNAL BENEFITS

Robert Marlowe 410-823-3800...KC.marlowe@verizon.net

Brothers, I am pleased to announce that Brother Andy Gleeson will be serving Long Green Valley Council as Benefits Advisor. Andy is a Past Grand Knight of Fr. O’Neill Council. He will be attending a meeting at Long Green soon to properly introduce himself.

Only having “through work” insurance doesn’t work

Do you know anyone whose life or career has been drastically changed during these years of economic downturn? It’s very likely that someone in your immediate or extended family or group of friends is facing financial uncertainty now. Maybe there’s a possibility that you (or your spouse) could lose your job or change employers.

Too many people have often relied on group term life insurance as their only safety net. Often, this insurance is an employee benefit provided at low or no cost. The existence of this coverage might convince someone that personally-owned life insurance is not necessary.

Only having “through work” insurance can leave you and your family vulnerable. Most group life insurance policies are limited in amount, which may be tied to salary or some other benchmark. These numbers are often capped, and this cap may be dangerously low when compared to your family’s actual needs. In fact, without a detailed needs analysis, any employer-provided coverage will likely cause a shortfall at the insured’s death.

In addition, the amount of group insurance offered is almost always reduced, sometimes dramatically, when you retire. You could one day find yourself without coverage, and if your health has changed (which it will as you age), you might also find yourself unable to secure individual protection. It will definitely be more expensive.

While group life insurance can help, it does not replace the need for individually owned life insurance. I’ll be happy to meet with you and provide a no-cost needs analysis, so you’ll know exactly where you stand.

Knights Ladies of Long Green Valley

Ladies...it was a very,very good year. Here are some of the things we did:

We held Kevin Ewing Night and donated $100 to his back to school expenses. We hosted 43 ladies at our Welcome Back Dinner and collected healthy food for weekend food emergencies at Riverside Elementary whose children often come to school on Monday hungry. We started Troopons for our military families across the world. We mailed 18,913 coupons to Support Our Troops and saved our military families over $26,056 on their grocery bills. Our 21st Muffin Day netted 353 blueberry muffins for patients at Gift of Hope. We donated $300 to the Knights Thanksgiving Project. We taught St. John's 8th grade students how to make no-sew blankets for Gift of Hope for Thanksgiving. We delighted 72 ladies with our Christmas Tea in the Valley and sold over 250 White House Ornaments. Both Fundraisers netted us over $4500 in November. At our Christmas Party instead of exchanging gifts, we collected over 300 much needed items for SARC, a domestic Violence Shelter in Bel Air. We adopted three children from St. John's Giving Tree and made the Holiday very special for them. We donated $300 to St. Johns to their "Organ Donor" campaign. We held a Quarter Auction and donated to profits to sponsor 3 Council members in SARC's "Walk a Mile in her Shoes" Race around Bel Air. We held our Marian Devotion in May with Deacon Fred and each lady was given a rose for the Blessed Mother. The altar was overflowing with beautiful roses. We donated $800 to the Knights towards next year's heating bill and bought $125 items for the kitchen. We bought First Communion gifts for St. John's children. We celebrated our successful year at our Farewell 'til Fall at Friendly Farms,

One top of all this at the Knights Convention in Ocean City this May, we were awarded First Place in Best Ladies Auxiliary and Best New Project (Troopons) and Third Place in Best Reoccurring Project (Christmas Tea in the Valley).

Thanks for a Great Year Ladies. I wish our new president, Pat Loeffler much success and with this group of ladies, there is no doubt about it.

God Bless and thank you again. See you in October.
